Real Estate Firm Expands in Arizona with Opening of New Mesa Office

Realty ONE Group of Arizona establishes new office with plans of opening several more in Arizona, unaffected by a changing real estate market.

MESA - As part of its growth strategy, Realty ONE Group, Inc. is celebrating the opening of its newest office in Mesa, Arizona, bringing the total to seven prestigious locations between Nevada and Arizona. Since its inception in May 2005, the Las Vegas-based firm has experienced undisputed success with a pioneering business model that focuses on the use of cutting edge technology and dedication to service and value. With five offices in the greater Las Vegas area, Realty ONE Group, Inc. expanded into Arizona this past summer with the opening of its first branch in upscale North Scottsdale, naming its Arizona operations 'Realty ONE Group of Arizona.' The new Mesa office, located at 1830 Alma School Road, has further secured the firm's success in the Phoenix metropolitan area by becoming the obvious choice for clients seeking an innovative, full-service real estate agency to represent them in the fast growing East Valley cities of Mesa, Chandler, and Gilbert.

"Unaffected by the recent downturn in the real estate market, Realty ONE Group of Arizona is aligned for success with plans of opening more offices in this exciting region in the near future," explains Kuba Jewgieniew, President of Realty ONE Group, Inc. "Our ability to use technology sets us firmly ahead of the competition by allowing us to offer a broader spectrum of services with a lower fee structure."

Realty ONE Group, Inc. and its focus on technology has also been instrumental in attracting some of the top real estate agents from around the country. In recent months, the firm has launched the highly successful myROG.com, an online organizational tool that assists its 600-plus agents manage their day to day real estate activities.

Another strength for Realty ONE Group, Inc. has been their ability to diversify and expand their operations to accommodate a larger clientele. The company's newly formed property management division specializes in managing properties throughout the greater Las Vegas area, while its mortgage division offers loans to clients in Las Vegas and Arizona, as well as 35 other states.

"Realty ONE Group, Inc. is experiencing incredible growth," states Jewgieniew. "We are confident that our innovative approach will continue to be well received by the increasing number of individuals who are demanding more than what a traditional real estate firm can offer."

Realty ONE Group, Inc. is on target to open additional offices in the Phoenix metropolitan region, Las Vegas area and California in the upcoming months.
